Description

A fine pair of Late 19th-century oriental paintings, Signed H. Carnier. (HENRI CARNIER)

Each oil on canvas painting captures the vibrant essence of a North African street scene, depicted with remarkable attention to detail and a rich, warm palette.

The artist brings to life a bustling North African street framed by magnificent architecture. The intricate domes and towering minarets stand majestically against a clear blue sky, while townsfolk engage in their daily activities, adding a dynamic and authentic touch to the composition.

Both oil on canvas paintings are signed H. Carnier in the lower right corner. The stunning gold frames with intricate designs further enhance the beauty of these works, making them a perfect addition to any art lover's collection.
